

INTERESTED IN A CAREER IN WELDING?

The Jane Addams Resource Corp offers
FREE welding training and job placement assistance

- FREE if eligible*
- 10 weeks, 235 hours
- M-F 3:00pm-8:30pm
- Ongoing Enrollment
- Job Placement Assistance
- Certifications through OSHA and the American Welding Society

*This is a WIA-Certified training program and receives additional support from the Fry Foundation

What choose a career in welding?

- Welding is in demand. The Department of Labor reports that “good job opportunities are expected for skilled welders because some employers are reporting difficulty finding qualified workers.”
- Welding offers good pay and advancement opportunities. The median wage for a welder in 2008 was $16.13/ hour.

What you will learn in training?

- Proper workplace safety procedures
- Set-up and assembly for MIG welding
- Types of joints and weld positions
- Print reading and welding symbols
- Forklift safety and operation

Attend an Orientation and Information Session

Call to Register:

773-728-9769 ext 21 or ext 27